50 YEAR ARCHIVES 1960-2010 - WELSH GEOLOGICAL QUARTERLY 1965-1970

This section includes the Group's magazine Welsh Geological Quarterly, published between 1965 and 1970.

The compilation has been scanned from cyclostyled issues of the magazine. Original issues are in the Publications cardboard archive box.

As with some other older papers, the better the quality of the original printing, the higher the degree of searchability. A scan for "Bassett" in the digital compilation gives 63 mentions, but there are most certainly more occurrences than this.

The Welsh Geological Quarterly (edited by Dr Douglas Bassett) was published in several numbers, forming 5 volumes, between 1965 and 1970.

It was an in-house periodical, cyclostyled and published 4 times a year. It was duplicated on 21cm x 26.5cm paper stapled between soft covers (vol.1 cream, vol.2 red, vol.3 grey, vol.4 green, vol.5 orange). The charge for volume 1 parts 1 & 2 was 6/- (2s 6d per copy + 6d postage). Similarly for volume 1 parts 3 & 4 [6/- is 30p in decimal currency].

The Group was unable to sustain support for this and despite the Editor's efforts, it ceased publication in 1970 with volume 5 part 1.

For this www archive, on account of size, all the issues are listed separately.

GEOLOGISTS' ASSOCIATION, SOUTH WALES GROUP

SESSION 1971-2. CHAIRMAN : T.M. THOMAS, M.Sc.

The Welsh Geological Quarterly

As it has not been found possible to continue, with the present arrangements of voluntary help, to produce the 'Quarterly', the Editor and the Publications Sub-committee announce with regret that the publication of this periodical will cease with the issue of Volume 5 (1969-70) part 4 (for Summer 1970). All subscribers will receive the remaining parts, to be issued it is hoped during 1971. They are advised to send no further subscriptions (£0.75 per annum).

The following forthcoming publication is announced:

"Geological excursions in South Wales and the Forest of Dean"
by D.A. Bassett and H.G. Bassett (editors), 200 pages (approx.), price (about) £1.50; published by the Geologists' Association, South Wales Group, Cardiff 1971, and available (from September)
at

H.J. Lear Ltd., Royal Arcade, Cardiff.

Singleton Bookshop Ltd., Singleton Park, Swansea.

It will be the first of what is intended to be an occasional series of publications.

On behalf of the Group all subscribers are thanked for their interest in the 'Quarterly' during the five years of its existence. It is hoped that they may continue to be interested in the Group's publications.

July, 1971.
